Turnaround times are measured in working days (Monday to Friday). Weekends and public holidays are excluded. Availability and the agreed completion date are confirmed in your quote.

Plagiarism Check & AI Analysis

From €20.00, depending on text length.
Combined checks for text matching published sources and indications of potentially AI-generated passages. You receive a detailed report with matching sources and AI analysis results, plus support with any questions. AI analysis is not offered separately.

10% Discount for Advance Payment

You receive a 10% discount on the agreed price when paying in advance. The discount does not apply to 24-hour services or express orders with a turnaround time of fewer than three working days. The qualifying conditions are set out on page 2.

Individual Quote

The price depends on text length, the service required and the turnaround time. Please send your text and preferred completion date to office@korrekturdienst.at. You will receive a no-obligation quote.

Services & Terms

All proofreading and editing is carried out personally by me and, on request, without artificial intelligence.

Proofreading

Checks of spelling, grammar and punctuation; capitalisation, word spacing, compound words, hyphenation and typographical errors. The agreed approach to gender-inclusive language is followed.

Editing

Includes all proofreading services. In addition: improvements to style, expression, clarity and flow; removal of unnecessary repetition; checks of terminology and linguistic consistency; and more precise wording.

Formatting

Consistent layout in line with your university’s or institution’s requirements; creation of a table of contents and lists of figures and tables; consistent presentation of terms and abbreviations; and adjustment of footnotes to the required format. The specific scope is agreed in your quote.

Pricing

One standard page consists of 1,500 characters, including spaces. Additional services, such as formatting tables and figures, checking their captions or revising the document’s structure, are taken into account when preparing your individual quote.

For texts of fewer than 20 standard pages, the minimum charge is €20.00.

Payment Terms

You receive a 10% discount on the agreed price when paying in advance. To qualify, please provide your billing address with your enquiry, pay the invoice promptly and email confirmation of your bank transfer.

The discount does not apply to 24-hour services or express orders with a turnaround time of fewer than three working days.

About the Combined Check

AI analysis is available only in combination with a plagiarism check. The results indicate potential issues but do not provide conclusive evidence of plagiarism or AI use.
